IRONMAN

You are Cordially Invited to Spend an Evening With 9-Time Ironman World Champion Cherie Gruenfeld

Seventeen years ago Cherie Gruenfeld turned her back on her three university degrees and a successful career as an executive in the high-tech software industry to become a full-time athlete. Since then she has become the most decorated amateur masters Ironman triathlete in the world and the first female over 55 to break the twelve-hour barrier. She has won her age group in nine Ironman world championships in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii, and last month broke the world 65-69 record by over half an hour. Her first love, however, is the Exceeding Expectations Foundation, which she founded eight years ago to use the sport of triathlon as a vehicle to help inner city kids in San Bernardino turn their lives in a positive direction.

Proceeds to benefit Cherie's Foundation: Exceeding Expectations.
